

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Roger Eastman graduated from the Creighton College of Pharmacy in 1937 and became licensed in 1938; and,

WHEREAS, Roger Eastman operated Eastman Drug Store in Tripp, South Dakota, from 1939 to 1953 and, also, assumed operation of the Eastman Drug Store in Platte in 1949 where he now resides; and,

WHEREAS, Roger has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, the caring and sharing with family and friends and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Roger served as the Platte Hospital pharmacist for 19 years, served as South Dakota Pharmacy Association president, served on the South Dakota Board of Pharmacy, was awarded the A. H. Robbins Bowl of Hygia Award for Outstanding Contributions to Pharmacy, and is still very active in civic and community affairs; and,

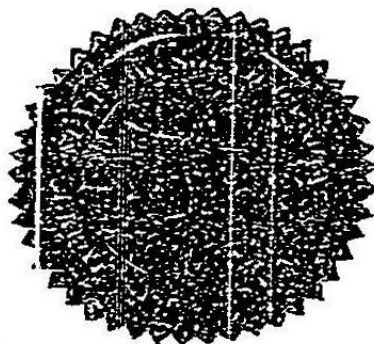

WHEREAS, Roger and his wife, Helen, are familiar and friendly faces to the community of Platte and its surrounding areas; and,

WHEREAS, On January 17, after more than 50 years as a pharmacist in the Eastman Drug Store, Roger Eastman is retiring:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim January 17, 1990, as in South Dakota, and I join his many friends in the Platte community in wishing he and his wife good luck in the future.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twelfth Day of January, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR
